

2.4.75

Mr. Weston, Stockton Cemeteries Offices, Stockton 64590, says Oxbridge Cemetery was not opened until just after 1870. Miss Marshall, at the Thornaby Town Hall office will be able to show the registers from which the following information was extracted (at a mutually agreed time). Ownership of the land rests with the local authority, all ~~land~~ that is purchased is the right ~~whereby the local authority~~ to nominate who shall be buried in the grave

The stone in Oxbridge Cemetery is in the centre of four graves ! -

B 6 G and B 7 G were purchased 22.4.86 by J. Acornley, Ironworker, of St. Anne's Terrace, Stockton

B 6 H and B 7 H were purchased 17.5.86 by R. Howie, Roller, of Barret Street, Stockton

Interments have been:

in B 6 G	Richard Howie, of Barret St., aged 34 years,	23.9.86
	Richard Howie Acornley, of Ford Place, 3 months	5.9.01
	Elizabeth Ann Acornley, of St. Anne's Tce, 16 years	25.4.86
in B 7 G	Margaret Virginia Acornley, aged 60	23.1.06
	James Acornley aged 61	20.6.05
	Louisa Acornley aged 21	26.9.93
in B 6 H	Joseph Tyson, of Adam Street, aged 46	20.12.91
	Elizabeth Howie aged 80 years	9.6.95
	Edward Howie aged 74 years	13.7.90
in B 7 H	Thomas Edward Acornley aged 81 years	28.2.55
	Margaret Acornley aged 70 years	26.10.43